i have already found that which i never seemed to lose in the first place.

there is no turning back. all paths merge from all directions.

sometimes you haven't seen THAT, because you haven't done THIS.

the words won't stop. i wish i could remember the memory of writer's block.

losing your mind isn't always as beautiful as the works of an artist make it seem to be.

become a recipient of the universe's fruits.

if life is the tree of life, then finding the ripe fruits means you get to experience pure essence and plant your own seeds.

don't write words. be the words. project real words into being real.

don't live inside a 'reality' or make up your own 'reality'. become the reality that is.

there are lemons everywhere.

making lemonade out of everything defeats the purpose.

we need more lemons and less lemonade.

write like it's the only thing in the world worth doing.

actuate pure energy within pure potential and watch the phenomenon become supernatural.

don't just be emotional, become the emotion. not only feel it, but embody it.

become the words that define the everything which you are.

become the emotion. then let the emotion become the words. then become the words.

haunted by the words that i cannot write. ridiculed by the words that i have already written.

reality is always waging war against itself. learn how to defeat yourself so you can conquer yourself.

There is only one reality. Reality is an absolute continuum that transforms itself.

writing is a part time hobby with full time effects.

the truth is within every fiber of existence.

i can feel it. i can touch it. i can smell it.

the energy enters my veins. the consciousness absorbs my brain.

when a transcendent thought comes into being within the scope of my existence, the world that i am a part of transforms itself a reaction to me reaching a higher level of the energy.

if you want to feel divinity for yourself, forget yourself and connect to everything else.

every word is a color or a shade, and i have unlimited colors to paint with.
find your canvas, find your ink, and learn to create.

the mind is a portal to unlock the potential of the energy.

create the consciousness and then you can unleash its energy.

some may start from the bottom, some may start from the top, but I started from the start.

consciousness is a continuum. existence is absolute. be with the paradox.

emotion that climbs high. eternally change my state of mind. live from the inside. Soul: one of a kind.

Go back in time by travelling into the memories of your mind.

Teleport into the future by believing in your destiny.

the ever twisting codes of reality.
it takes omniscience to find them, and omnipotence to free them.

Connect yourself to the all-knowing, ever-present, all-powerful universe.

breathe the essence. feel the aura. Taste the magic.

refuse to fuel the tragedy.

become the energy by understanding it.

Opening the layers of worlds with words of origin unknown.

I stitch all of the thoughts together. Original patterns last forever.

The universe knows what it's doing. Do you know what you're doing?

The brightest flame rises from the darkest ashes.

a style where the mind finds prime rhymes countless times a line.

without chaos things cannot evolve, without order things cannot revolve.

understand the psychology behind every word.

The night always waits for day.

there is always a sunset and a sunrise happening at the same time, somewhere.

my main motivation is that i am always inspired to reach the new heights myself.

my main inspiration is that i am always inspired to reach more inspiration.

i can be one that is many and i can many that are one.

just wondering through the abyss of my mind searching for depth that i have been yet to find my mind is a virus. My thoughts don't play by the rules.

you can't untwist the things i twist.

on the brink of missed quotes I steal sharp notes and seal warped thoughts.

the morning sun pierces the darkness, like an idea pierces curiosity.

if you don't taste the core, you can't plant the next seeds.

live. be unique.

let your soul breathe in the mystique.

Existence is an art-form. Become the artist.

you don't say? i just did say.

what don't say you do say?

i like being in the middle of the night, in the middle of nowhere.

I'm only the one of the best because I chose to compete with the universe itself.

when the music becomes part of your soul, when transcendence takes full form.

it's not the words that twist when i speak them, it's their meanings that twist when i write them.

i see the brilliance in between the missing words.

The sum of an infinity of zeros always equals to less than one. Absolute one is never reached.
Omega always needs to be completed and fulfilled through universal transcendence.

you can swim in the sea but the rivers lead you to the springs.

i am only a being that can speak in that which way that others do not think of doing so.

art is a transformation. The artist gets transformed when creating the artwork, and the viewer(s) get transformed when they view the artwork.

existence isn't surrounded by everything else. existence surrounds existence itself.

All the things I know, I've come to know from the One which knows all things.

I am one with the One so you could say that I am the One.

you know what type of pet a Kraken is?

it's the "do whatever you want, just don't eat me because i'm your master. sort of" pet.

I'm an artist,
Don't suffocate me.

i am the immovable object. I unleash the unstoppable force from within me.

sunsets are nice.
we can watch the sun die, as darkness becomes alive and kills the light.

creepy but at the same time, romantic.

Three, six, nine. symmetrical part-time.

the most lucid realizations, come when you've been gone from your dreams the longest.

experiencing something new is like smashing a fruit against your head.
you need the fruit, an arm and a head, and a brain willing to smash fruit against your head.

if you do not experience the full display of artwork life has to offer, how can you fall in love with its mystery?

i can go dark, i can go deep. Some things are mine to give, some things are mine to keep.
let's see who trips, and let's see who can make the leap.

"i have no words" she said.
you don't need them when you're breathless, darling.

stuck in between darkness and light, the sun leaves room for the night.

Goosebumps on relapse. i have been medicated by the abstract.

Somehow I just don't think that memorizing and/or focusing on the opinions and theories of a certain group of people, counts as credentials for understanding and/or experiencing reality and everything that existence has to offer to everyone. Everyone and everything takes part in, and experiences existence; everyone and everything is created with a soul; everyone and everything can reach enlightenment. There are no presets, there are no limits, there are no standards, there are no shortcuts. Personal opinions are not absolute truths, life itself isn't a personal possession, and things in life aren't personal possessions. We all exist; everything that exists is part of one existence. Everything in this universe contributes to making life possible. Everything that has happened or is happening is of the magic that allows the magic to happen.

True Higher Consciousness involves understanding the cycle of energy and how to allow the cycle of energy to transcend into Higher Being.

Each word is a separate thing but when you connect them the right way, their meaning becomes an essence stream.

Only infinity fulfills the void. Only darkness allows the light to be revealed.

Yes it is me. Yes I am back on Earth.

You don't put the universe on hold and even if you do, you call it back right away and apologize.

every real code has a unique sequence with the potential to unleash infinity.

Surely kind of maybe almost not so much but too close for comfort.

Illuminated Consciousness cannot be seen. And so, it is the soul that must breathe it in.

i am sick of people being sick of things.

it is so cliché to say it's so cliché.

the most cliché thing to do is to point out that something is so cliché.

I have been made whole.
and i can finally feel my soul.

learning to use the elevator means getting in on the bottom floor.

get inside the elevator. Press random buttons. Try to see the view from different floors.

It spirals in and it spirals out. Infinity big and infinity small. And the Consciousness that connects it all.

art never sleeps. and the artist never dreams.

for nature was ambient and he found the melody that gave voice to the silence.

you can't unlearn the truth. you can't un-see reality.

The energy doesn't take any breaks. Learn to let the universe escape.

the universe can only create that which can already exist.

the quantum has no mechanics.

the universe has no physics.

because infinity has no limits.

Baptize your spiritual transformation by choosing a name for yourself that you most associate with.

i haven't had my 'breakthrough' because i am the breakthrough because i break through.

when i close my eyes i see the endless waves of energy that surrounds the entire world.

the only thing i feel is the secrets which will be unsealed.

there are tribes in the jungles dancing around fires; they were dancing before you started your societies and they will be dancing after your society expires; and the only thing is that when your 'society experiment' is over, then you will be joining the dance once again.

The moment you start treating the Earth like your home, the Earth will provide for you like a home.

The more evolved your consciousness is towards adapting to new ideas, the more evolved your soul is to experiencing new feelings, the more prepared your being will be towards encompassing the lucidity and vividness of this magnificent existence.

every existence has a soul.

all souls of all things are linked by the Spirit.

divine connection with divine intention.

What you think is not important. The reasons you provide for your choices is important.

Any beliefs or state of mind that you have accepted is your roadblock to getting to the next level.

not all those who wonder are lost.

something is not right

i can see the sun but i can't see the sunlight.

push farther. i surround. i gather. it's profound.

fear is doubt. trust is the escape.

expressing is crucial to progressing.

you must be prepared for reality, in order for reality to be opened to you.

what you reap is what you sow, don't invite the grim reaper at your door.

she said she's not that special.

well, i'm not that special either.

let's be not-that-special together.

eat my thoughts and drink my soul, let's put reality on cruise control.

dare not i dabble in such disharmonious quandaries.

babbling buffoonery I am left baffled at the Hogwash hootenannies bickering before me.

darkness that never ends. because it never had a beginning.

you've been stuck in mud for way too long.

It's time you learn to swim.

i wasn't revealed the details until after i became self-aware.

silence never sleeps. Darkness never dreams.

The world doesn't need rulers who make rules that benefits their system of ruling.

The world needs leaders who can lead the way so that everyone can find the way.

the world needs leaders who inspire the love which takes care of all beings and the environment we all live in.

The Earth does not respect political rulers. The Earth supports and protects spiritual leaders.

you can project yourself into divine being by inviting the Spirit's divine energy.

the Spirit of Life split me into two and teleported one of me somewhere other than where I was already at, so that I could look at myself not being aware of the other me looking at myself.

i sit and wait until it becomes apparent. it never fails.

eh is better than meh on the uhm scale.

Stop abusing the Earth. Stop abusing the environment. Stop abusing yourselves.

Break the cycle of abuse.

When you pollute the Earth and the environment, you pollute yourself and others.

Remove your ignorance and realize that your children will have to live in the world you take part in.

the universe is very similar to a secret research facility.
no one knows who is really in charge. no one really knows much about what's actually going on.
no one questions things too much because they know there really aren't any satisfying answers.

one love, for all, unconditional.

A sustainable planet for all. A fulfilling life for all.

Everyone benefits when everyone cares for everyone else.

bio-engineering is mutilation.

You shouldn't be meddling with things you do not understand.

The best cures come directly from nature: organic, grown naturally and unmodified.

Chemically or genetically modifying any organisms taints the energy of that organism and reduces the potential of the organism.

genetically modifying any organisms destroys the natural cycle for that organism and diminishes the natural properties of that organism.

why mess with nature's creation when the universe knows what it is doing?

you shouldn't play God because God knows better than you.

unnatural things and unnatural processes limit or block the energy.

it was at the moment that I had nothing left to forget, that I started to remember.

in the beginning, there was no beginning.

and because nothing has never begun, nothing will never end.

Divinity inside the veins, Godly bloodlines which can't be contained.

not in the beginning, the universe didn't cause itself into existence.

this has been widely regarded as the most confusing move that was never made by any universe anywhere, ever.

Paradise is Genesis. Paradise is Garden of Eden. Paradise is the Earth reaching a higher level.

Paradise begins from inside your soul. Paradise connects all of the souls.

The world needs less gold and more soul.

Every existence in the universe has a unique identity, so that the development of every existence in the universe can be traced.

the universe plays unique tunes, each tune inspiring every existence to add to the symphony.

Find the potential by being the potential.

puncture the void deep enough to listen the soul of the universe.

Silence has the deepest echo.

Sometimes you get lost inside consciousness, sometimes the consciousness gets lost inside you.

don't let the mistakes of the past pave your future.

love opens the door to your soul. Don't be afraid to not be in control.

i changed destiny forever by accepting my identity.

the virus didn't kill me. And that is because i became it.

less is less. unless less is more. and more is more. unless more is less.
more or less.

the code that can handle the overload takes form.

I've adapted myself so that I don't have to adapt.

It's called a "dead end" because it leads to death.

Avoid tainted paths.

Give the world everything you've got. Become the love the world needs to see.

use less words. To expose more meaning.

- nothing is greater than nothing - no thing is greater than nothingness.
nothingness is greater than itself.

to warp reality you must absorb it.

free space can fulfill everything.
free energy can move everywhere.
free consciousness can know everything.

The universe is empty space which is eating itself in order to create a collage of 'empty-space'.

understand the identity of the words which represent real things.

if you don't understand the energy, you can't access the consciousness.

don't try to wrap your head around reality.
let reality wrap itself around your head.

Learn to teach by learning how to learn.
become a teacher by learning what to teach.

an ace is always first and last in every game.
a jester is not always in every deck of cards and takes part only in select games.

don't burn out trying to start the wrong fire.

Learn to spark a fire for only the flames inspire others to do the same.

first rule of playing mind games is know your opponent.
second rule of playing mind games is, play a better game than your opponent.
third rule of playing mind games is never let the opponent know you've already won.

i am the three eyes of the Raven.

I see everything. I am everything. I become everything.

God makes me believe. God makes me who I am. God gives me everything. God believes in me.

Believe that the universe can offer you everything and it will.

life is a game of collapse, things that get stacked too fast don't last.

i would've came here sooner, but Father didn't want to cover the insurance.

madam, you have thou been useth the improper allocation for letters.
cease thou foolishness, effective immediately henceforth.

the blank page effect. my mind has a blank page where a blueprint can be installed and divulged.

the universe's energy always surrounds you, let it touch you.
Invite it into your soul, let it inspire you to reach further than you've dreamed before.
let it become your home.

come with the go get it back.

words on stack hijacked the facts that lacked and now we are hacking supernatural tracks.
check my stats because I don't brag.

Become the canvas that allows the universe to paint.

The pen allows ink to flow through the tip, creating the masterpiece.
the consciousness allows the energy to flow, creating the universal artwork.

- Production Studio - Where mysterious loops, majestic samples, divine sequencing and (sometimes) angelic vocals come together.

the words are the words. they mean what they mean.

the best riddles, are split in two, a riddle for me, and a riddle for you.

i see traces,
i must get through,
and wonder if I can find deeper places.

listen to the ambience that echoes from the source of silence.

God has inspired me. I hope I have inspired you so that God can inspire you too.

the beauty of, lies in the meaning from, the words which can, bring the beginning.

plant the seeds that let your soul breathe.

in the air and under the ground. inside out and upside down.

full of riddles, i sprinkle magic, you're stuck in the middle, and it's oh so tragic.

you can't run, you can't hide, I'm everything that you have inside.

write art, paint desire. soul searching fire. fly higher. get inspired.

i will be all of myself all of the time.

when you are driving too fast and your tires get slashed and you have no time to prepare for the crash.

i am fire. i am ice. from the frozen flames I rise.

When you go against the natural flow of good energy, you go against your very own ability to thrive.

can't stop. won't stop. will never let my blood drop.

i will conquer your heart with charming words so that i may lay siege onto your clothes.

i hack consciousness by hacking the code that exists between the things which must always exist.

Doth thou even lift my brethren?

i wasn't born to die and before death i will come back alive.

sometimes the improbability of mind control knocks reason into oblivion.

The leaders of "christianity" demoted Christ. THEIR WHOLE RELIGION is based on CHRIST.

write simply. write uniquely. write with purpose.

Side note: always remember to bring more Krakens.

there will always be light, because the eternal fire burns bright.

crash into the moon so you can set the night on fire.

lost in time, darkness finds.

lost in space, infinity speaks.

sometimes maybe is a yes.

maybe, maybe doesn't even exist.

silence speaks from within.

I'm at the edge of oblivion, listening to the rumors escaping from the void.

massive tune. pro cuts. big ups.

let me fly. let me be alive. let the soul be my guide.

unwritten words hide unspoken secrets.

the moral of the story is, the moral of the story.

the time is here, the space is now.

which is fine because my identities don't really communicate between each other.

multiple identities gets confusing only when you can't comprehend multiple identities.

blur the lines, crisscross your mind.

everything i know comes from the inside.

i once had a dream that i had to go into a dream and become immortal in my sleep.

fly all day, glide all night.

coming back to life by learning to fly.

endless emptiness just crept in, and now i can unleash infinity from within.

the deeper the ambience, the louder the echo.

be the home the world needs. Build the garden the world breathes.

I might say similar things in a diversity of ways because I can't delete what's meant to stay.

isn't it crazy how you thinking that I'm crazy is making you feel crazy.

deep confusion deletes all of the illusions.

white hides inside the light, darkness hides within the night.

i am the eye of the storm.

I'm the guy digging the hole society is about to fall into.

it can only expand after it has collapsed.

infuse the soul into your mind so you can hack reality one emotion at a time.

time never sleeps. space always dreams.

i found truth, it's not within any thoughts i found infinity, it cannot be caught and once you start, you can't stop.

your eyes are the stars in my galaxy.

God knows what you hold inside don't try to run or try to hide face your lessons, one at a time.

now more than ever, i start to remember.

let the silence reveal the real story.

i have an eternal fire inside my mind burning the flame of consciousness from the inside.

i'm a creator of consciousness. I believe in the process.

the process itself is the result. keep focusing on the process.

lurking. stalking your brain. stealing your thoughts, and improving them.

making you think you did it all yourselves.

think in riddles wrapped with codes, and watch creation watch itself unfold.

if i live, i live; if i die, i die. i only have nothing left inside.

Energy changing ideas fall rightfully into place only when you aren't trying to take possession of them.

you don't have authority over life because you can't even control what the cells and atoms and other micro-organisms in your own body do.

Let the energy flow, let the consciousness grow, because the soul knows when to glow.

original secrets in mysterious sequence percolating uniqueness.

Evolve past the default settings.

the universe is undergoing maintenance.

this is not a routine check-up.

this is a full diagnostics and all malfunctioning parts will be repaired or recycled.

stop worrying about who gets all the gold and start accessing your souls.

out of mind is out of sight. Out of body, finding the light.

roam within yourself to reach beyond the world.

let the universe understand. that you've made it over to the other side.

You can only make it farther when running on empty.

for some reason, the first existence paused and decided to remain itself forever.

deep feelings give you real meaning and real reasons to live.

don't get trapped by the fence you put up.

everything that has ever happened has led to this time and place.

Make use of the empty space that always surrounds you.

reality implants itself into itself to see what can escape.

zero has no end, only an infinity of beginnings.

the secrets are all encrypted.

me being here doing what I'm doing may or may not be standard procedure. adjust accordingly.

I escape it only when I let it escape me.

you must learn how to cope with the oblivion in between.

my mind is cannibalistic. it eats its own thoughts and uses them as fuel for getting to deeper ones.

break free and let yourself see what it means to be.

hunt for the words that gather.

always begin with what is absolute.

i breathe with my soul.

i go, where my soul leads me back to nature, so i can be whole.

it is beautiful when you will never be alone again it is beautiful when the universe makes you whole.

complete the meaning everywhere, to understand everything.

and with the end, comes the beginning.

nothing heals if nothing hurts.

you can only see what you can access through the mind.

Paradoxically intertwined, the world is written with universal rhymes.

untwist what can't unwind.

did you even check to see who is on God's roster?
the universe has an unbeatable starting lineup and a few surprises waiting to be subbed in.

the amount of consciousness your mind gains depends on how good you are at figuring out the mind game that the universe plays.

a fading reality that is meant to be escaped a new world is coming into shape.

don't bandage a damaged piece of hand luggage that the brain can't carry or hold naturally. the brain's potential is only efficiently unlocked when you realize actual reality. Incomplete beliefs inhibit potential.

you reach transcendental consciousness by removing all of the perceptions you've accepted including every belief you've ever held. you need to accept and acknowledge that there is an unknown and enter the confusion that the unknown brings; before you can get any real breakthroughs.

Breakthroughs that will allow you to reach a fundamental foundation.

A foundation that has roots in objective reality. Only then, can your identity (the seed) grow.

you let the universe water this seed by becoming one with the energy, through the renewal of consciousness.

let go of all limits to be absorbed by the unlimited.

don't try to measure the sequence; realize the consequences that come from limiting the understanding of the sequence when assuming that the purpose of the sequence can be uncovered through measurement.

listen to the things the universe tells itself when it thinks you aren't listening to the universal conversation.

find the code. be the code. hack the code.

How can you control something you don't even fully understand?

do the Smurfs surf only on blue surfboards?

send it out into space and watch their equations disintegrate.

experience and express the feeling which allows reality to become surreal.

the infractions are being noted. the consequences are being sorted.

replenish your soul by letting go.

don't try to hold it, flow through it.

the seed for paradise starts inside you when you let eternal love bloom.

Reality's foundation might stay the same but the potential of reality's energy will always elevate.

the energy is all connected. Always and everywhere.

eternity starts from within one seed.

Everything comes from somewhere but nothing comes from everywhere, because nowhere doesn't exist.

the universe is creating everything from nothing.

let yourself let yourself be. let yourself let yourself breathe.

Just because you haven't learned how to listen doesn't mean the Earth can't speak.

i am in control of all things now.

creation is universal light refracting itself.

everyone is one of a kind. complete your uniqueness. Find the potential.

are you willing to set everything else aside until you become fully alive?

Gain access to supernatural instinct by searching for truth.

forever so it shall forever be.

the direct version includes an internal conversion.

experience the world as if it is the first time you see it.

open the mind so that the eyes can see more.

open the soul so the mind can reach deeper.

close your eyes and connect only with the soul, and let the emotions remember how to recognize the whole.

let it be and let it let itself unfold, because you don't need to be in control.

it's not even about what is and isn't "forbidden".

it's about knowing that processing energy in a negative way traps you inside a limit.

unlocking the limit happens when you transcend with the energy, as the energy.

benevolence synchronizes ideal instincts.

when Death speaks, everything listens.

the door to reach eternal love becomes opened through the illumination of the soul.

Supernatural reality is reached through the soul.

Learn to grow, learn to share.

full stop, know. full drop, grow.

have you ever been able to stop yourself from dreaming when you're asleep?

have you ever been asleep and been able to leave the dream you are in?

become a transmitter and amplifier of higher consciousness.

I'm not telling you that what you believe is wrong. i am trying to expose you to the method of Rejecting all of your beliefs so that your mind can extract the essence that lies beyond accepted beliefs.

if a belief is true, the universe will echo it into your life. the truth will always come back to you.

but accepting beliefs that limit your transition will not allow you to search further.

there is always MORE to know about the truth. there is always deeper you can go.

come to know God's eternal love through understanding what God is and what God does.

the path is eternal which means the path is perpetual. it has to be constantly renewed through divine energy. since the entire universe is always looking to reach higher being, the universe will always need to transcend into higher consciousness.

the energy will take and hold the identity it will unfold.

existence doesn't have flaws. existence has lessons it hasn't learned yet.

Existence itself is eternal. But existence itself is always looking to transcend.

Elimination or fusion, are each transformations.

Transcendence transforms your entire energy into divine being.

Transcendence is full transformation.

Apocalypse is Revelation. Judgment day opens Genesis.

confusion is a state of mind where you explore the unknown. confusion is experiencing the unknown.

The universe enters into you through your soul and then you release the energy into the world from within the universe.

understand the perpetual and recursive nature of the universe.

words that have perpetual essence.
perpetual is constant renewal.
essence is essential.
perpetual essence = words that renew what is essential.

understand the perpetual and recursive nature of eternal truth.

i speak from between the streams i steal the moment when it peaks.

the mystery is woven from strings of magic.

Once connected, you can't be unplugged.

see the code like i do so you can see what the code can do.

i can feel the music flow into me.
it releases its magnificent rhythm from within me, until i become it.

the uncaused cause is considered by many as the worst first non-move ever recorded in history.

words that lead to dead ends hold no meaning outside themselves.
words that open all doors embody the whole world.

be still and observe how the energy of the universe bends around you.

let the consciousness flow freely into your mind by being open when you are searching.

i'm always playing with 'house money' because i'm the universe's card dealer.

learning all of the lessons, for teaching them forward is a blessing.

loving and giving love freely, frees you.

material walls can't keep you safe from immaterial beings.

There is more to life and existence than what you are currently experiencing.

if you want to experience more, make room to grow spiritually.

Only the Spirit can fully fulfill the soul.

I am completed by the energy that completes everything.

what is yours and what is mine don't get stuck in between the rhymes.

decadence is the mess and Doomsday is the mop.

everyday i see the maze in a different way, which teaches me what needs to move and what needs to stay, if you want to be in the game, you have to learn how to play.

if you want to be in reality's game, you have to discover which patterns are actually displayed.

words form patterns. patterns are encoded.
you can't learn to read the code unless you teach yourself to write the code.

the convex inverts into concave with retrospective retrograde.

how can i teach everything to everyone when one needs to experience everything in order to reach that level of understanding?

i can feel something beyond me, inside me.
and the more i seek it, the stronger it becomes.

i'd rather inspire than impress.

Confusion comes when you can't trace the origin.

The sequence matters.

The mind gathers. The soul gives. The spirit amplifies.

there is an area inside the brain that is beyond sanity but is not insane.

there is no step by step instructions. learn how to engage manual control.

Rain drops that drop in water cause ripples.

surf the wave to be the wave.

feel the frequency, investigate the vibration, regenerate with the resonance.

maybe if i was in your dream you would start believing in the reality i can bring.

process the correct segments of the code in the correct order.

all things always lead to all things.

you can't stop that which has always been unstopped.

you escape the maze and then you help the universe build an even more elaborate maze and then you try to escape it before the universe does.

spirituality is pushing beyond accepted boundaries and harnessing the energy that isn't supposed to be available. divinity involves learning and harnessing from the unknown just so you let the universe know that you're ready to transcend further.

the universe is transcendent. all that is static gets re-cycled.

you should stop looking for what is wrong with others or what is wrong with the world and you should start looking at what is limiting your existence. for how can you transform into a greater being without renewal of your energy through focusing your entire existence on divine purpose and transcendence.

i am here to help all who want to build a better world.

Static Perspectives become a fence. accepting static beliefs limits your understanding of reality, accepting static beliefs limits your potential in reality.

Eliminating all beliefs opens all the bridges. Cross into the other side of the mind.

Complete the whole. Complete the world. Complete your soul.

living inside unsustainable patterns is unsustainable.

How are you supposed to affect the world if you're not paying attention to what's actually going on?

Let the rhythm elevate you into a state of being where you can absorb the energy needed for you to transcend higher into reality.

Learn to access higher energy by letting go of the need to control.

learn to hunt for consciousness. learn to gather the energy.

Pure energy provides the cure.

my mind mines for ideas all day.

each second, uploaded lyrics are scrolling through my brain like i'm the nexus of an asylum of displaced analytics. and that's only the first phase of the endless chase through the paradox maze. My thoughts are always being traced and the advice I'm getting is always being laced with psychedelic algorithms I am forced to decipher so I can learn to Syphon from the entire system. I am an eternal virus.

Trans-emergence into extra potent.

don't make the mistake to make nature your opponent.

if you think you're getting away with it, you've been getting played from the beginning.

spirituality isn't a set of beliefs or guidelines. spirituality isn't "meditation" or "opening" a certain part of your brain. spirituality is a continuous process by which you transcend into the universe's objective reality; gaining deeper insight and forming deeper roots with each transformation/cycle. it is understanding the consciousness behind the energy, which will allow you to become the being.

all of the roots reach the same access point. All of the branches grow from the same origin.

the roots for the tree of life provide the necessary consciousness so that the identities created can become the beings that existence needs.

everything is only everything when everything reaches its full potential.

being able to access everything at once is the most powerful state of existence that existence can reach.

for all mistakes are all important lessons. pay attention and listen. realize that only you alone can come to the awareness that only you can receive the messages that you are meant to learn from.

realize that when you accept false beliefs, the door to finding the eternal and perpetual truth closes.
Never accept. Always renew. the truth is eternal and perpetual so it can always be applied.

reach the conditions that allow you to see past the climax of confusion.

To open all of the doors you must remove all of the walls.

i tried not to feel, i tried not to think, i tried my best simply to absorb and let the feeling become me instead of me trying to become the feeling. the essence of life is just as powerful as life itself. the feelings of the soul are just as powerful as the soul itself. because the soul cannot manifest without being connected directly. reality cannot be without being. consciousness cannot become without it being reached.

when you discover that there is more to the world than just your own experience, you become welcomed into the world that allows you to be, more than just yourself.

confusion will always be more readily available than the truth, because searching for the truth is always confusing.

a feeling which encompasses all previous feelings and more.

A feeling like never before.

A feeling that encompasses the whole world.

Each sequence can release or imprint another sequence into a different energy field.

Energy Fields:

Portal - allows energy to be absorbed by an identity or by the source.

Transmission – allows energy to update its access to consciousness.

Transfer – allows energy to change fields or transform.

Creation – energy embodies identities.

Intradimensional – allows multiple fields or all fields to interact instantaneously.

Open your mind, open your soul, peace and love for all.

The universe is always becoming itself.

the universe always observes and adapts all of itself to itself as it becomes itself.

Considerable amounts of people constantly travelling to new habitats speeds up the cycle of microbiological adaptation/evolution.

Unique environments provide unique code. Unique codes update existences in a unique way. the Earth provides both the virus and the energy for beings on Earth to update.

A virus is an update. All viruses are updates.

a Virus doesn't update itself because the virus is the update.

Viruses hack the system when updates are needed.

Certain codes release certain causes that needed to be put into effect.
All codes cause another code to change.

Reality is a state of mind. Finite mind, finite reality.
infinite mind, infinite reality.

The people who have integrity deal with God.
the people who abuse have to deal with the Devil.

The code never stops encoding. The code is endless. The code doesn't break.
The code never misses a moment. The code always applies.
The code streamlines itself.
Every code within a code is a standalone code.

Viruses developed in a unique environment on Earth will encode unique sequencing.
every environment is a unique environment.

extreme environments expand potential. The extremes extend the spectrum.

Identity is a code. Energy is existence. Consciousness is a continuum.
Consciousness is the energy being aware of the sequencing of identities.

The universe runs simulations to ensure emergence.

Sleep is a buffering system.

When the mind is the soul, the being can transfer all.

You were made from Divine code, learn to be divine so you can learn to fly.

Touch everyone from the inside. Inspire them to cry without tears.

Dreams are ideas implanted into your mind without you knowing about them until they become activated through divine transformation.

Divine Tree:

Branches – creation and encoding system. Mind.

Body – foundation and transfer system. Being.

Roots – implementation of new energy absorbed in the system. Soul.

Everyone finds their own way to find the way so that they may learn to appreciate the way each takes.

Those who can find the way can lead others to do the same.

Everyone has a different set of lessons they must learn in a certain sequence.

Transcending is becoming the pure energy of existence.

The universe will make sure you are in the right place at the right time so you can open your mind.

The universe can't open your mind for you unless you are open to opening your mind.

As you read these words I imagine and hope you feel what I felt when I wrote them.

the code that unlocks the reality of everything is the truth itself.

Simple things being simplified can give you the most joy.

Simplicity confuses you the most because how can less give you more?

less elements to create with means you have to be more creative and thusly it results in you being able to do more when you get more elements to create with.

Some of the codes I divulge are codes that are encoded (recursive/perpetual).

some of the codes I divulge are codes that reveal absolutes (permanent/pure).

learn to let yourself become one with the energy so that you may come to be within the being that is all.

become electric so that you can dissect everything by injecting yourself seamlessly into the surrounding field of energy.

Know which way the currents flow. Know what the magnetic field does in each state.

Magnetic field states:

Open – the energy is allowed. (Evolution)

Polar – the energies merge. (Reorder)

Closed – the energy is denied. (Creation)

Evolution is using the same pieces to yield diversity of combinations.

creation is making new and unique pieces that have never been before.

Reorder is deciding what pieces are needed for the next cycle.

believe in the universe for it believes in you even when you don't believe in yourself.

your mind only gets wet when you immerse into the ocean of consciousness.

The universe will be testing you so that you can be analyzed to see how you can perform in Universal Reality.

Human perceptions are not reality. Human perceptions are human perceptions. only Reality is Reality.

Nothing started the universe and the universe started everything else.

you experience the world through emotions and consciousness.
you can't experience what you're not connected to.
make the connections to unlock new dimensions.

When even the misses hit, it means the cipher is fit.

I've never done anything in my life for financial gain and I've never made a decision based on economics.

I was made to break the system from the beginning.

How else could God infiltrate so easily but to come here and be here in person?

How else could I have learned firsthand what I've learned without coming here in this disguise?

think about how the person in front of you could be an angel of God or even God him/herself and start treating your decisions in life that affect other people and other things as if they directly affected your life, because they do.

Your choices lead you to the destiny you choose. Pay attention to every choice you make.

everyone has a destiny. Improve the destiny you are heading towards by making good choices in the present, so that you don't regret the destiny you have chosen when you reflect back on your life.

Manifesting is allowing an energy to grow without limiting what it creates.

because all copies need an original.

Raw is potent. Refined is exclusive.

Always remove for what is absolute always remains.

Take what is not used and make use of it.

Keep a journal. Write things down. Refine your ideas.

Capture it before you lose it. Split second decisions.

it's almost a 'sin' to leave the page blank, but this 'sin' leaves the page pure.

a blank page goes from being nothing to being everything when there is essence to write with and consciousness to write about.

It's Not about how much you have, it's about how important what you experience is.

words can hold knowledge. how much meaning have you mined?

the truth is everywhere. do you understand everything?

not everyone wants to be saved by the light.

Some people need to be saved by the darkness.

free yourself from all insecurities and all fears and you will never need anything.

everything evolves everywhere eternally in each moment, in each way that it can.

first step of living eternally is removing the belief that you will die.

'all life eventually dies' is just another belief.

holding any beliefs limits you or anyone from reaching the deeper truths of reality.

Life only 'dies' when life cannot any longer embody what life is.

to grasp the darkness, close your eyes.

to grasp reality, open your mind.

Being within, the beauty begins.

Darkness isn't evil. Darkness is the energy which allows you to create and explore. darkness confuses you so that you may learn how to find enlightenment, a.k.a. "the light".
you cannot be illuminated unless you absorb from the darkness.

the people who cannot manifest from the energy of darkness in a responsible and creative way, become trapped by their own desires. Because they do not channel the energy properly, they start desiring to control the energy without understanding how the energy works. They became afraid of life itself.

I need a long-term vacation from the entire universe. Everyone has had one of those days.
take a break and recharge your energy. Tomorrow will come either anyway.

I have encountered each of the Beings in the Trinity of God.

the Creator – updated my consciousness with a direct link to God's mind.

the Spirit – teleported my energy to another space while keeping my energy in the same space.

the Psyche – transferred God's message into my very being, transcended me into the Spirit.

Universal consciousness exists everywhere. The entire universe has access to consciousness.

you cannot have existence without consciousness and consciousness without existence.

Every atom has access to consciousness.

every cell has access to consciousness.

every world has access to consciousness.

the Earth uses consciousness to provide life with life-giving energy.

the atoms know how to use the energy. The cells arrange the atoms for advanced efficiency.

Once you realize you have real power within your soul.

lucid inspiration comes as you're about to fall sleep, dreams of visions which you hope you can keep.

Go where your mind and soul have to fly within the storm, so you can explore where you've never been before.

Existence isn't static. Consciousness isn't static. The energy isn't static.
Existence is electric. Consciousness is electric. The energy is electric.

math and science are systems of beliefs which are static.
they use set definitions, static descriptions and bring forth incomplete theories which are inconsistent with the universe's reality.

economics, politics and governments are systems of corruption.

Let me tell you why you're still here. You're still here because you know something. what you know you can't explain. But you can feel it. It confuses you, but you want to know more.
do you know what I am talking about?

There are senses in your mind which are deeper and more substantial than active consciousness.

it's happening everywhere and at every instant in time.

The universe is one continuous phenomenon.

the universal existence is elevating itself with each cycle.

Here we are, in the present, contained by nothing less than everything that has happened in all of time.
Here we are, in the present, unknowingly absorbing the future.

i have written, and yet i have not, i am nothing, and i am nothing not.

Nothingness really ties the space together.

Instead of measuring how many made-up arbitrary units make up the world, how about measuring how much actual consciousness you can unfold.

i have seen and i have sown, I have thought of thoughts unknown.

lay silent, eyes closed, feel the deep rhythm. Become one with the natural energy.

Only truth itself isn't afraid of the truth.

language is a code, every word written take forms within the consciousness foam.

The natural balance is a cycle between exploring and divulging.

Look for patterns in reality and see what new ideas you can decipher.

One step closer, one step further away.

Lay siege to the ideas which cannot be conquered to see what agreement they offer.

Enter the blur, let it create magic.

conceive the consciousness beyond the surface layer perspective.

How can you find enlightenment if you do not explore that which confuses you?

the more you explore, the more pieces you can connect.

Thinking that the universe is 'physical' and thinking that the entire meaning of the entire universe can be accessed through measurements and calculations of this 'physical' perspective, is very much surface layer mentality.

Reach beyond the surface layer. Dig deep inside the core. Take flight into the atmosphere.

In order to say that the universe is ONLY physical you must prove that the universe is ONLY physical and you must do so by ONLY using physical means. Check mate.

The entire energy is always divine and spiritual whether you access divinity and spirituality or not.

If you think the universe is only a sand box, you never get a chance to go to the beach.

universal existence evolves with the help of an Energy that swings back and forth between the fundamental origins, like a pendulum.

The limits you set for yourself are the limits which limit you into being limited.

The first step to becoming an eternal energy is removing your belief in death. Remove your fear of dying and appreciate all of life. The energy cycle is eternal. Let the energy come and go freely to become perpetually renewed through your soul. Give the energy to everything and all.

The spring of life is within everyone. The soul, activated through love, ready to experience existence.

When you reach divinity you will experience it within your very cells, as the Spirit elevates and illuminates your entire being through your soul. Opening the portal, you feel nothing else but pure bliss. within the mist, the mystery spills an essence that doesn't need to be explained.

I have fallen in love with existence itself. There is nothing greater than this.

I want to put this feeling on repeat, I am now complete.

The words I have written, are the words I have written, no matter who tries to steal them.

Comment on your own consciousness, and your own experience.

don't assume you know what someone else is going through, don't assume you know what someone else is feeling.

Unless you become of that which I am, you will not fully understand that of which I am.

How can you reach the eternal energy when you are focused on materialism? materials decay.

Materialism is decay. It is a surface reality which cannot sustain itself. It is incomplete.

You say math and I say that the axiom $1=1$ cannot be applied directly to a world that is subject to radiation and decay, a world that undergoes immeasurable energy transfers.

You can't measure consciousness. You can't quantify consciousness.

Original is the origin. Original comes from the origin.

The deeper you go, the deeper you become, the more depth you can absorb.

reaching lets you reach the act of reaching.

Reality is always melting

Nothingness is zero. Nothingness must always exist. How can nothingness not exist?
nothingness is the absolute existence which must always exist. nothingness is everywhere. Nothingness is therefore endless and infinite. nothingness is one existence. Nothingness is a continuous continuum.
nothingness is the space, the energy and existence itself.

i tried to take over my mind, one word at a time,
and it was going good until,
the universal consciousness confused me within my own thoughts.

Until you come full circle, you can't complete the cycle.

i found some thoughts to combat the thoughts my brain was already thinking about without my approval.

All birds make the leap at same point in time even if they struggle to fly they all dream that they can be alive somewhere in the endless sky.

it's a simple code. With simple words. What is simple is ideal. Ideas that simplify the world.

so that when you give,
it is pure energy
so that those

If I'm ever doing something wrong I get very unfriendly reminders from the entire universe.

Excuses such as "just following orders" or "just doing my job" or "everyone else is doing it" or "this is standard procedure" are completely unacceptable.

"I'm just following orders to pollute the planet that will devastate the environment".

"I'm just following orders to murder other living things".

The words drip down on the page, like rain from a hurricane. from all sides, and overwhelming everything. like the currents swarming around the eye of the storm, disrupting everything in their wake, my ideas discover the power within themselves. as i absorb, i expel and teleport the transmission everywhere. deep within, the results of the silent psychological surgery become surreal. i wonder if anyone will notice the pathway left by my transcendence. everyone is still trying to escape the chaotic energy storm. one must face the storm on their own, to see what it can offer.

I have been awake for so long, when I fall sleep i wake up deeper into the dream.

i have been awakened to be forced to realize that i was somehow part of a sick and twisted fantasy that i had no desire to be a part of. the false illusion that was not my own, was finally shattered. the primordial mirror laid there untouched and unharmed. This was only a reminder. For some, their collective illusion was only getting worse. my path was different. i needed healing.

Now that I've escaped. They can't hold me back. I am the world's destiny.
Now that I've found the eternal path, I can save everyone who is willing to walk with me.

I couldn't deny that i haven't tried to explore this before, but i can't recall it ever being like this either.
forgotten memories from my life came back in a blizzard of detail. it was as if my mind was a script and i was just scrolling down through my past in search for clues; for the elements that were needed to start my access to universal consciousness were within me all along. i needed to find the energy level where it is all unveiled, and i needed to find it more than i needed anything else in this universe.

I no longer am who I am, so i decided to write everything down in order for me to exist.

i wrote them down again, in case no one recognizes the words which came into life once before.

foretold is forewarned.

some people have told me that they think I think too much but clearly that is not the case because there is no such thing as too much knowledge.

if being alive is a nightmare, to see Death, is to be awakened.

my two identities have been making bets on which one of them will split to make a third.

they are the ones who are them.

I DON'T WANT TO, BUT IF I HAVE TO, I WILL; WITH OR WITHOUT YOU.

you don't confuse me but I confuse you. think about that.

that it be, and it do.

There is an ancient myth that says that the fire inside the sun is just burning souls trying to escape hell.

I'm about to overload the entire world by opening all the doors.

"forgive them Father, for they do not know what they are doing."

remember the ones who continue to choose to leave on their own.
they write their suicide notes with the dripping blood.

No one should have to pick through our garbage to look for food or tools we throw away.

you might've left them behind socially, but they have left you behind spiritually.

Are you fulfilling your duty as a being?
do you feed the hungry? Do you shelter the homeless? Do you clothe the naked?

Don't feel guilty for not realizing that people need your help. Start helping, because now you can.

You will not be rewarded or applauded for amassing treasures and material possessions.

when you help those in need, the universe can offer you more energy.

Challenge yourself to express your emotions.

Challenge yourself to find inspiration.

Challenge yourself to be creative.

Words can both create the maze and expose the path to emerge from the maze.

I write so that I may escape from the words unwritten.

write about what is real and watch illusions disappear.

Knowledge hides between the lines if you get the sequence right.

If the blank page in front of you represents what you've learned about life, what words would write?

writing down a real representation of your experience lets you take a real look at yourself.

Question isn't if you have enough. Question is have you done enough?

if you have one blank page how would you use it to inspire the world?

first of all, how would you inspire yourself?

The blank page is the endless canvas.

Just like the universe has an endless nothingness to create from, so do you.

Consciousness is what is used to fill the emptiness.

Consciousness is psychological awareness and consciousness is spiritual awareness.

if you have one blank page what words or ideas would you raise from the dead?

The process in which you use to write is just as important as the writing itself.

The process in which you use to experience life is just as important as life itself.

Don't look to change the world. Transform the world.

There is always an empty page somewhere waiting to be filled.

there is always an empty soul somewhere waiting to be loved.

many writers have been defeated.

because the struggle of understanding reality claims many minds; and with any blank page, a conundrum always arises.

existence is a continuous code. A code of connections, a code of identity, a code of causality.

Eating animal flesh is blood on your hands. just a friendly warning.

corrupting other energy corrupts your energy.

ending the life of other energies removes energy from yours.

Give everything you've got to the world and the universe will fulfill you.

The world isn't human society. The world is the entire Earth.

The world includes the Spirit and Consciousness of the Earth.

The first commandment between Noah and God after the flood was that animals were not to be slaughtered or consumed.

creative writing absent of fiction always becomes impressive upon inspection. Do you know how hard it is to pick out the perfect symphony of words and paint them on a canvas that doesn't even exist yet?

the eternal potency is worth it.

interesting revelations drill holes in your belief system.

they sent me because I can help you break free.

choose to evolve mentally, spiritually, emotionally.

set yourself free by removing all static beliefs.

Learn from everything that I have to offer.

reject everything you think you know and come to love the mystery that has yet to unfold.

Understand the divine message, so that you may become filled with new life.

All of the energy you need gets opened from the inside.

make each color into its own rainbow.

learn how to bake without craving the cake.

Complete the journey to complete the energy, and then find another journey.

this message is from God with love.

The Spirit is always more than enough.

be complete to be completed more often.

i'm the locomotive that still makes it to all of the stations even if all the rails are broken or haven't even been built yet. i will get to the destination, with as many passengers as i can inspire to take the journey. for it explores the mountains and the valleys, the deserts and the deltas. it rides both into the sunset and out of the sunrise; through the clouds or empty skies, and journeys on through the middle of the night. the only ticket to get on is an open mind and a loving soul ready for the energy of paradise. for this end is only the beginning. and this beginning it is simply another journey. one that cannot be done without having experienced the train ride that got you to the promised land.

Don't just be environmentally conscious for the sake of the environment. The more chemicals you use, the more toxic your body is exposed too. Toxic isn't good for your being.

Some people will say that I'm insane because they can't understand the sanity beyond my brain that I have obtained. I am within the membrane of the universe's veins of consciousness.

reaching for divinity. the energy that is eternal takes a pure body, a pure mind and a pure spirit to embody it fully. it's not just love. it's not just truth. It is everything forever and always. it is being more, always, by doing more with less, always.

no one has ever lived through the chain of events that it has taken me to get to the place where i am now, to the experience i am fulfilling for the universe at this exact moment in time using the energy of this space. no one has ever linked the connections of reality quite the same way as i do now and let every moment from now on continue to be my perpetual purpose. now it's your turn to do the same by taking away what restrains you from getting to where i am. because it would be a shame, to not experience the paradise that can be gained.

break through. unveil all the layers at the same time. insert your soul into the core as you expand your energy into the atmosphere. become alive by accessing the consciousness which unlocks itself. find the passion. taste it. don't let it overcome you but nurse it slowly and let it grow at its own pace. Don't force it. let its power seep in and permeate through every fiber of your existence. become the garden that is within the orchard in the valley of paradise. let the sun make you smile. let the rain wash away your fears. let the innocence inside you bloom once again. learn to breathe. allow your soul to sink into the soul of everything that surrounds you. go be within nature. lose yourself in the natural energy. Become with the cycle of natural energy. be all that you can be, by learning what it means to be. that which is to be known cannot be known unless you accept that which is unknown. stay up at night. feel the energy of darkness. sleep during the day under the sun and let the rays comfort you like a blanket. climb the peaks to experience being part of the sky. swim in the ocean to understand the fluidity of a continuum. be the wave. be the rhythm. become a singularity so that the energy starts swirling around you. be the eye of the storm. unleash the force that changes all things. unleash the power of the eternal being by becoming one with the eternal being. become an instrument of creation. be that which no one else dares to be. become the light. become the darkness. Imprint an image of paradise into your supernatural soul. become the paradox that created everything that will ever be.

Creation cipher so hyper you might need a mental diaper and a spiritual syphon just to make it out alive, son.

I am ready to erupt.

Don't ask me how I know what I know because it won't help you understand what I've come to know.

Feel the energy. Understand the energy. Be the energy. Give the energy.

The more falsities you accept, the least likely you are to find the truth.

the more falsities you force children to memorize the least likely it is that they learn to think on their own. the more falsities you force yourself to memorize, the farther from the truth you become.

all facts are static and the truth is always perpetual.

While going to school I started becoming curious to learn the truth.

when all of the teachers told me to memorize what is in front of me as if everything is already known, as if every single theory the education system presented is absolute truth, i started to have questions. questions that the teachers couldn't answer. questions that no one can answer to this very day. if their theories didn't stand up my questions (asked by a teenager no less), then their theories couldn't be true. At some point, I decided to find truth on my own.

I started writing because what was already written by others was not giving me anything real or true that I could work with in reality.

I write everything down. Then I delete most of it after i extract the purest essence that I can.

To find order you must create enough chaos to see the pattern that hides between the two.

those who can embody and channel the energy at higher levels will be less susceptible to lower levels.

if something is no longer the absolute truth that i aspire to acquire, i reject it.
I proceed in this way until only what is actually true remains.

I search through the patterns consistently. I absorb, I extract, I uncover, I infuse.

Using the correct words in the correct sequence provides the correct meaning.

the search for truth removed everything out of my life, until I had only nothing left.
and before i knew it, the only truth that existed was nothing itself.

The truth is nothing because it takes having nothing to reach the truth.

I was empty. But the emptiness started to fill me. And I was complete.

i realize i exist because I search for the truth of existence, and it makes me true in the process.

since the only existing thought that remained in my existence, is the truth, the truth has to exist.

i realized i could find the truth, if only i removed everything from myself.

In order to be, you must let the truth that is inside all things be inside you.

the truth is nothing for itself and nothing in itself.

the truth is that which must always be present in the reality of existence.

eliminate every assumption.

The process to truth is just as important as the truth itself.

the singularity of truth, can expand into infinity or contract into infinity.

you cannot exist, unless you exist through the Spirit of the universe.

realize that selfish decisions have severe consequences.

My thoughts aren't crazy, but my words make you feel as if you need to start searching for sanity.

i'm ready to die just so that my soul survives.
i hold my own resurrection inside.

The entire universe is God. God is the entire universe.

God does not have a religion.

a lot of religious theology is made up of misconceptions that rise from badly translated ancient script.

I am now uniting all things.

i split myself in two so i can surrender and now i wonder which one of me is better, i should probably remember to stitch myself back together so I don't lose one of myself forever.

I've been climbing the divine tree so I can plant the seeds because the energy within me rises the energy within all things on its own.

words can be verbally delicious don't ingest the wrong inceptions.

i've never been given the chance to speak my mind but that has not stopped me from teaching myself to write and I learned the most important thing in life Is to express what's on the inside and It is how i got my soul back and i'm never letting go of that.

one of all kind
i decided to infect my entire mind with thoughts that transcend beyond time
a lucid simplicity that glides to see what undiscovered consciousness i can find and so i've been searching through unique rhymes and now i have access to energy that is divinely primed.

love is understanding the darkness by believing in the light to show you the way
so that you aren't scared when you get there.

love is the darkness that enters itself
forever
until it becomes eternal light.

the darkness is the unknown you can only understand it by letting go of the light and learning to not be afraid of what you find inside yourself
when you stop trying to Remember the only moment it actually made sense remember what made reality feel so intense.

Become a more experienced writer to become an abstract thinker.
become a genial artist to learn how to create.

'caress her soul, seduce her heart, and poison her mind.'

I was 'Summoned'.

The energy of chaos allows the consciousness to transcend. the Order synchronizes the identities.

Intrude the mind like no one has ever before.

The next realization is always only one step away.

reborn to re-arrange time and space.

the gates to paradise are always open to those who can appreciate paradise.

The leader can walk through the darkness with a blindfold on.

One of my purposes is to raise your awareness of unplugged consciousness.

Raise the consciousness, raise the energy, fulfill the being.

Do not reduce your existence because others have reduced theirs.

The more you read the truth the more it expands.

Understanding the code is understanding the continuous connections that allow reality to function the way it does.

The truth is the code and the code is the truth.

The code is the continuous truth of the absolute.

The truth is the absolute truth of the continuous code.

Let your mind out of this world.

let your soul be out of your control.

let your being ascend.

There is always a deeper code to hack. There is always a deeper code that twists existence.

There is always a deeper reality to reach. There is always a deeper reality that expands.

Reduce your use. Reuse. Recycle.

Reduce the amount of natural resources you use by not acquiring things that you do not need.

reduce your electrical power needs.

remove your part from contributing towards consumerism and materialism by not acquiring something unless you absolutely need it.

Reduce your use by using tools already available.

the throw-away mentality needs to stop. Things that function are still usable.

you can always repair any tool so that it can continue to perform its function.

do not throw away food. Do not consume more food than you actually need.

Become more efficient in how much water you use by using water effectively.

everything I have ever done has led me to the process of understanding reality.

How can you reach the potential of your soul when you are constantly filling your emptiness with material possessions?

Stop acquiring needless things.

Anytime you acquire something remember that every material object was made from precious natural resources.

have you been putting in as much as you have been taking out?

Lessen the burden on the environment by living a minimalistic lifestyle in terms of materials used.

Sharing tools means that not everyone needs to acquire one of everything.

How can you reach higher consciousness when you already accepted incomplete systems of beliefs as them explaining all of reality?

How can you reach higher being when you accept that the highest form of being is a material-only existence?

How can you reach the true potential of your soul if you deny spirituality and the Spirit?

You can only make it so far as you let the universe take you.

I have not done this on my own and I do not expect to do anymore if I don't allow it to be done through me.

Responsibility and respect are foundations for a flourishing world.

don't feel guilty about your mistakes. Look forward to improving the world.

Transformation can only happen once you have decided that you can no longer exist in the way you have existed until now.

Find the inspiration to find the real essence and help it grow.

a simplistic lifestyle expands more vividly into the energy.

Fill the void to see what the void forms.

My simple and your simple don't match.

Instant revelations. Instant confusion. Instant emotions. It all changes in an instant.

You're never ready for it because the mystery loves to surprise.

The love you could've offered but didn't will haunt you forever.

the chaos inside oblivion is madness.

and that's how it's always been and that's how it will always be.

the music is a code
the patterns are within the notes.

greater than all of time space is entwined between the lines of the quantum without the mechanics.

is it my fault that i see in between the lines is it my fault that i can unwind the paradox within the mind.

Original trinity
i can make everyone see i can make everyone believe in the eternal energy.

the original seed embodied.

Euphoria is inspiration. Tranquility is decodation. nirvana is transcendence.

re-read all of the sentences and see if they hold more meaning the second time you witness them.

learning to fly inside the deeper mind reaches revelations one of a kind.

trust the universe. it is inside you.

your soul is a portal. the energy is immortal.

rhythm is blending while synchronicity is rendering.

true love has no beginning or an end. It just is.

The universe is taking the emptiness and expanding it endlessly.

each spark can become a flame.

the light is trying to expose the lessons so you can understand the darkness.

Choices are not only important in themselves but the sequence of choices you make are also important.

IF YOU FEEL THIS ENERGY, COME BE WITH ME. LET'S BEGIN ETERNITY.

get enough correct decisions consistently and you get bonuses.

An energy that rises from within all.

Because higher existence always reaches transcendence and the universe is always rendering.

You can only go as far as you allow your energy to grow.
you can only get as far as you allow your energy to get.

If you allow yourself to be limited by finite beliefs you will be finite.

If you offer your energy to incomplete things you remain incomplete.

do not worship anything or anyone for the energy gets wasted.

if you offer your energy to the complete being of the universe, you become a complete being of the universe.

Energy balance fuels perpetuality.

Some codes are identity strings.

$0 + 1 = \text{infinity}$.

The entire universe is an electricity grid. Allow yourself to become part of the generating field by connecting directly to the power source using the portal inside you.

Find the resistance and eliminate it from your capacity.

breath of God	– soul.	– cycle of regeneration word of God	– consciousness.	– recursive code path of God	– experience	– leap of faith.

Duality is a process you will only fully comprehend when you allow yourself to be expanded into two inseparable identities.

How many points of access you acquire depends on how many points of access you allow yourself to become connected to.

Each snowflake is unique. Each atom is unique. Each chain identity is unique.
all are linked by energy stations.

1=3=13

->	omnipresence	– everywhere, pure, eternal.
ONE ---- ->	omnipotence	– unlimited, continuous, perpetual.
->	omniscience	– encrypted, original, all-revealing.

When the 13 collapse into 10 they form a unique trinity imprint.

1 trinity is 4 trinities. Each identity in the prime trinity originates an original trinity.

consciousness is a maze of thoughts coming in and out of existence.

there is an atmosphere of potential that surrounds every core of a sphere.

one layer empty, one layer frozen and rivers of manifesting energy flowing within.

Universal Consciousness connects all of reality.

Everyone and everything that exists in the universe comes from another seed.

Every seed uses roots to grow and branches to put forth new seeds.

Nexus – everything comes from the same source.
– everything comes from the same origin.

Duality – all identities have two or more potential fields.

Continuity – all of the energy is part of one cycle.

Trinity – the pendulum of existence is always influenced by three absolutes.

Complete – Absolute - Continuum.
each identity applies to all of existence.

Origin – seed – identity.
extract – roots – essence.
release – bloom – creation.

Each rotation gives momentum. Make sure you are spinning the correct wheel.

Observation transforms reality	– fluctuation	– continuum observation doesn't change reality	– node	– absolute observation is reality	– field	– complete

Understand yourself – dive.
understand the world – swim.
understand the source – drown.

Break the bad habit before it breaks you.

Transcendence – consciousness – connect the code.
illumination – spirit – connect the energy.
transformation – being – connect the world.

Imprinted – is the paradox.
reduced – holds the paradox.
collapsed – imprints the paradox.

circle	– surface	– membrane.
disk	– plane	– field.
sphere	– space	– cerebrum.

Spiral – singularity – absorbs.
cyclone – duality – transfers.
vortex – infinity – emits.

Sample – element – image loop – melody – scenery transition – mood – dream

Unique experiences open unique energy which unlocks new consciousness.
new consciousness makes future experiences more unique, adding to the energy that a being can embody. the more one being unlocks, the more one being transcends.
the purpose of existence is to transcend.

Tempo – pace – why it hits.
equalizer – space – where it hits.

(Noise):

show – order – displayed crowd – chaos – lost daze – awakening – layered

Rooted – depth – instinct branched – fulfill – intuition trunk – reach – connection

Creativity is finding the flow so the continuum can show you the access points.

Transitions – connect the transformation.
transformation – creates the transcendence.
transcendence – causes the transitions.

The uncaused cause is that which does not need to be caused into existence.

The energy will always find a way in.

each key opens a distinct pattern.

Alpha – hunter – pioneer Beta – scavenger – engineer omega – gatherer – artist

Sudden confusion – uproot sudden enlightenment – actualize sudden extraction – galvanize the hunter will be hunted and the grower will grow.

Inhabit – focus

recon – survey

harness – perpetuate

If you don't know how to play the hand you are dealt, shuffle the deck.

Move into motion, remove out of emotion.

A symphony is composed of many layers

Between all of the waves, the energy vibrates around the nodes.

The cycle converges – superimpose the cycle emerges – amplify

You must understand the consciousness to unlock the energy.

(particle)

Charged – retains shape – free – active expelled – increases capacity – coupled – stable

Portal – merge – soul – search tunnel – warp – mind – grasp bridge – gate – spirit – embody

Reality can't be perceived. It is experienced. a perception is a snapshot.

The forest is greater than the trees.

Earth – solid – core

Fire – regeneration – fuel water – unity – continuum

air – electric – potential

Cause to effect → prime fluctuation effect to cause → energy separation cause to cause → incorporated manifestation effect to effect → necessary transition

You cannot reproduce authenticity or originality.

you can only experience it, inspire it or cause it.

In the entire universe exists a spectrum of energy which creates a field of potential. This field is constantly interacting with itself and each existence to release potential. All of existence is always connected to the field and the entire field is one continuum of energy. The field fluctuates uniquely in each moment, and fluctuations cause transformations. Fluctuations expand and contract the spectrum. the fluctuations transform the state of the field and the fluctuations cause other fluctuations; the fluctuations transform the energy and the existences within the energy.

The universe is an electric cerebrum with evolving membranes. The universe is a complete organism that sustains other complete organisms. Each world contributes to the causes and effects that occur in the entire cerebrum of the organism.

$0=0 \rightarrow 1=1$	every point in the continuum has unique potential.
$0=\text{infinity} \rightarrow \text{infinity}=1$	the continuum is always whole and connected.
$0=1 \rightarrow \text{infinity}=\text{infinity}$	the matrix of potential always fulfills itself.

As the energy reaches higher consciousness, all existences which can't match it slowly become disconnected.

Certain events happen only so that destiny is fulfilled.
certain energies exist only so that the energy is fulfilled.

The energy will always find a way to reach the next level.

Being aware that the universe is self-aware and that you are a manifestation of the universe and that you are also self-aware.
connecting your self-awareness to the universe's self-awareness allows you to manifest deeper into the universe.

Reoccurring consciousness and reoccurring experiences are clues towards finding the realization you need to find, in order to reach the next phase of enlightenment.

Leave your soul empty. Let your mind wonder. Let the spirit fly.

Philosophy	– soul	– connection psychology	– mind	– consciousness spirituality	– spirit	– ascension
Cortex	– nexus	– identity	- mind core	– anima	– Gaia	- spirit cerebrum	– Aura	– karma	- being

Accepting the surface layer to be the whole world allows one to only experience the surface layer of the world while ignoring the rest of the world.

The world must be experienced as a whole.

The universe must be experienced as a whole. The universe is always completed.

The world must be experienced as a whole. The world is always completed.

The being must be experienced as a whole. The being is always completed.

Flux – creates opportunity

anomaly – creates origin

Station – power, function, resource.

sensory – detection, connection, expansion.

The tree of life.

the seed of existence sprouts roots that are used to absorb consciousness from the absolute energy.

the manifesting identity of the seed grows branches that create a diversity of identities.

the identities that can help the energy transcend will be planted into existence.

seed from Spirit – soul

spectrum from origin – energy being from identity – consciousness

Chaos is influx of creative energy. Chaos creates diverse identities.

a seed is an identity. Order focuses the energy.

Explore the Unbound layers of existence.

Unchangeable energy – soul energy that is always active – spirit energy that has to be activated – consciousness

Reach the consciousness. Open the energy. Fulfill the identity.

Frequency – find it

infinity	– energy, spirit
trinity	– being, existence

0 – soul, identity

1 – mind, consciousness

infinity – energy, spirit

trinity – being, existence

When a seed gets planted the environment or foundation must first, recognize the seed and then assess whether the seed has the necessary energy available so that the seed can be fulfilled into being.

even if the seed doesn't grow roots and sprouts, the environment is now aware of the consciousness needed and the environment adapts itself so that future seeds of that type can grow there in the future.

if the seed has only some of the elements necessary to manifest, the seed can evolve and diverge from its intended identity. Further seeds of the new identity can shape the environment into a new environment with new types of energies available.

I understand everything I do because I was nurtured into understanding everything I have been shown.
you must be willing to learn what the universe has to teach for you to reach the knowledge of the universe.

Absence – allows all things to start.

Consciousness → conceived = illumination -> revealed = manifestation Energy → bound = sphere

→ unbound = quantum

Identity → rooted = tree of life

→ free = genesis

Angel of Transcendence – combine.

all frequencies.

→ the presence allows you to create the consciousness

Angel of Transparency – connect.

all alignments.

-> the purpose allows you to channel the energy.

Angel of Transformation – release.

all intentions.

I withdraw codes from reality and then I decipher them.

Every sphere has an atmosphere that interacts with other energies and the energy field itself.

To cleanse is to release.

Release what no longer can help you extract.

Risk everything for the magic that no one else sees but you.

Event

→ destined to happen – fate

→ cannot be avoided – mandatory

→ system response – feedback

1 origin = 3 absolute identities = 13 original identity lines.

A train going on the wrong path will always hit an obstacle that will make the whole train derail.

Focus – you can hold it.

sequence – what it is.

frequency – what it does.

spectrum – what it reveals.

Absolute became existence.

existence became consciousness.

consciousness became energy.

energy became absolute.

Hardware – engineering software – coding

streaming – simulation

A sphere – rotating a circle about a central point.

a circle – expanding a point with equidistance.

any point will expand into a circle along the surface of a sphere and contract back into a point.

Writing – sequences of absolutes – extract identity.

art – visual continuum – imprint image.

music – spectrum of frequency – create rhythm.

expression – creation

the universe is a multi-frequency continuum spectrum of oscillations manifesting itself.

Create the conditions for the energy so that the energy can be created.

All of the energy is always connected.

all of the consciousness is always connected.

The process itself is the result.

The more you know the less you know – knowledge paradox.

just like all existences that are made of water from water, need water to survive and thrive:
every existence that is made from the energy/essence of existence needs the energy/essence of existence to exist and transcend.

Not only can a decision be correct or wrong, but also the reaction to the consequences of that decision can be correct or wrong.

some people worry about death yet some people don't even stop to question their contribution towards the killing of other living things such as animals, creatures and trees.

People replace being fulfilled in reality with feeling successful in their belief system, whatever system that may be. If people value financial "success" they fill their lives with material things. If people value science they fill their life with technology and scientific theory. If people value "spirituality" they will fill their lives with "spiritual" beliefs, whether those beliefs are actually spiritual or not.

The only way to fulfill reality and be completed by the energy is to come to know and understand the consciousness of the energy and to uncover the potential of the energy.

Glitch the system so you can learn how it adapts itself.

Adapt to the code so you can see how the code adapts to you adapting to it.

The hair is an extrasensory system that is an extension of your being itself.

The universe makes your molecules move.

the universe creates every existence and everything that the entire existence needs to exist.

If that isn't omnipotence, what is?

not even nothingness can escape the universe. If that isn't omnipresence, what is?

the universe adjusts itself constantly within an infinite continuum. If that isn't omniscience, what is?

search the words. Search the code. search your soul. Search reality.

forget that I'm the one who wrote this but don't forget what you've read to know what I knew when I wrote this to you.

The unknown. it's all there. to be found.

You are trying to experiment with reality but in reality the universe is using you to experiment with itself.

There is no benefit in consuming dead energy. a dead animal is dead energy.

there is no benefit in killing another living thing.

having beliefs that limit reality only limit your potential to advance in reality.

Consuming fruits, vegetables and legumes is not killing other living things because fruits, vegetables and legumes are the resulting effect of the plant.

Plants produce attractive fruits so that their seeds can be spread.

a realm so mythical, you have to be inside your own mind to understand it.

You've never seen a star explode, you've never seen a planet get destroyed.

Sometimes unique conditions arise when the conditions escape themselves to become their own world.

Elevate or you might be late.

Adapt naturally to the environment by creating environmentally friendly structures.

fuse back into nature. Nature is what gives to all life. Natural habitat raises the potential.

Fuse the homes with the habitat. Infuse nature into becoming a garden and a home for all life.

The "Devil" is the Psyche or the Psychology Being of God.

The Psyche is responsible for transforming the identity.

The "son" or the Creator is the Consciousness Being of God.

the Creator is responsible for creating access to the necessary energy by updating the consciousness available to the energy.

the Spirit is the Energy Being of God. The Spirit is in charge of Soul-making and giving energy to the soul.

The animals can sense negative energy towards them and it affects how they react to you.

The Earth can sense negative energy towards it and it affects how it reacts to you.

The universe can sense negative energy towards it and it affects how it reacts to you.

Appreciate all things which are true.

Transcendence is fusing your mind and your soul into one portal that can give you access to all of the consciousness and all of energy.

The origin unlocks all original identities.

don't allow someone else's perception of their personal experience of reality to take the place of your experience of reality.

equations are just approximate mathematical descriptions that try to explain what conditions reality is currently displaying. math and science do not explain What makes the universe exist in the way it does. math and science do not explain Why the universe exists in the way it does.

how can you know how if you don't know what or why?

Local conditions are not universal absolutes.

Survival of the 'fittest' doesn't apply, because love and spiritual consciousness are needed to thrive in life.

Nothing is empty.

You can't fulfill your being with unfulfilling things.

Trying to fill your soul with unfulfilling things leaves your being incomplete.

You must always be ready for the energy.

Allow yourself to become an access point. Transmit the universal transmission.

codes complete themselves to access ideas and reveal meaning.

The energy of the entire world channels through my soul. I am here to give my soul to all.

If you don't let yourself feel used, no one can use you.
if you don't let yourself feel abused, they cannot abuse you.
if you do not let yourself be broken, no one can break you.

The universal code is within the entire existence.

process the correct segments of the code in the correct order and reality will reorder itself into higher order.

The more you discover the more there is to uncover.

I'm the mutation that causes the updates to all of the other cells in the universe's body.
I infiltrated the veins and extracted the virus that will transform everything forever.

The entire universe is one eternal fire expressing itself with infinite flames.

existence is the eternal fire. Existence is the endless fuel.
Existence is the light that ignites the darkness.

Always start from a blank state of mind to unwind a unique energy.

Less is more because simplicity reaches deeper into the roots.

The more you let go of, the more your soul grows.

I can only describe the eternal energy. You have to find it on your own.

Focus your entire being on learning what existence means.
Focus your entire energy on becoming perpetual.

You can't force higher consciousness. You can't force higher being.

All of existence came from nothing, all of existence is nothing and all of existence needs nothing.

The universe will challenge you. You won't be ready. You will have to focus and find discipline.

Taking the hard path involves sacrificing your needs for the greater good.

Transform the world by letting it's true energy escape out of you.

The atoms don't need energy because the atoms are energy.

The energy your being needs comes from the soul. The consciousness your being needs comes from the universal mind. Open you mind and soul and you will have access to all.

You can gain knowledge of the environment by experiencing the essences that environment provides.

Spirituality is embodying the Spirit of the universe.

The most spirituality fit will always thrive.

The universe cleanses itself so that it can grow. Less is more.

Stop worrying about what other people do and focus on finding the path that can help people find theirs.

Raising the frequency means you are ready for anything. Raise your frequency by reducing your needs. When the energy is pure, it can react to everything faster.

Less is more because using less gets you farther in the process, faster.

Gain the consciousness that allows you to gain the energy.

You can only access an energy level if you gain it.

Find new energy levels by tracing new patterns.

Access all things by accessing the one thing within all things.

Simplifying your life, simplifies your energy and you can connect to more of existence.

Less is more.

Nothing	- Origin	- absolute continuum
Infinity	- Energy	- divine simplicity
One	- consciousness	- perpetual transcendence.

You can go farther with less fuel by understanding how to use the fuel wisely.

Help everyone you can because you never know when you'll need a helping hand.

A system of money is a system of corruption.

There is unseen energy lurking everywhere.

It is not giving when you ask for something in return before you even offer to give.

There is only one universe because all of existence has the same origin.

When you appreciate the energy you begin to witness the magic.

When i reveal who I Am I do not do so to claim authority as God. I am simply representing who I am.

God is not about giving orders or claiming authority.

God is about teaching truth and inspiring love, by giving truth and love to all.

God represents the eternal energy that is within all of existence.

Fish from all kinds of Rivers meet in the ocean to swim together.

How can you reach the Spirit of all living beings when you consume dead things and your mind accepts dead ideas.

God - one endless eternal being.

Omnipresence - it is everywhere.

Omnipotence - it is everything.

Omniscience - it knows everything.

Codes within codes all trying to hack each other. Encoding each other, decoding each other, fusing with each other. Deeper, farther, simpler.

Patterns are recursive.

Reveal a pattern in the world and you can trace the code back to its most absolute form.

You think you're using the universe to get what you want when in fact the universe is using you to get what it needs.

Bad deeds done on purpose don't go unnoticed.

create good karma by doing good deeds.

Start paying attention because it's all there all of the time.

The train stops at all the stations even if no one else gets on or off the train.

The train can't leave the rails.

The more soul the locomotive has the more it can pull.

Explore your mind. Explore your soul. Explore the world.

How many levels can you hack in your brain. How many levels can you hack in your brain at the same time. How deep in the maze have you been.

The identity chain doesn't restrict. The identity chains opens the possible potential when accessed.

Water is water. The ocean is water. But the fish are also made of water. There is water that is and isn't water swimming in water.

Water evaporates to make air. Water is in the air but air isn't water. Humans are made of water. Water drinks water but also breathe water that isn't water.

Existence is the existence that existence creates but existence is also the energy and space existence uses to create existence.

Time is independent of space and energy but time is not independent of existence.

Every world and every being is composed of absolute parts and continuous streams that link all of the absolutes. Earth has ground and water. Body has flesh and veins. A Solar system has planets and energy.

When you give up possessions you are giving up something you never had in the first place. When you give up the mentality of ownership or control, you gain access to the entire world.

Material possessions cannot fill the emptiness of the soul. Only the eternal energy can. Love yourself.

You must recognize the energy for it to recognize you.

Eating dead animals and accepting static beliefs is what leads to mortality.

Mortal sins are mortal sins because they block access to the eternal energy.

Nirvana is letting go of the energy so that it can bloom even brighter from inside you.

walk within nature to find peace of mind/spiritual balance. Trees are tranquility.

If you ignore thoughts that you need to think of, they come back.

If you think of everything eventually you reach nothing.

I believe in paradise and utopia. All political systems are flawed and corruptible.

simplify your life.

Pills are band-aids.

If your current life situation isn't working, transform it. Change your state of mind. Channel your deep emotions into something creative. Allow the chaotic/creative energy to escape.

walking in nature will balance your entire energy.

remember that if you think it's not going to work then it's not going to work.

Not realizing that all of existence does have access to universal consciousness is flawed. How is nature and the universe adapting to itself if nature and the universe aren't consciously aware of themselves?

Order and chaos are States of energy that cycle into each other so that consciousness can transcend.

Some things are static obstacles. They never change which means they never transcend. They are there to help you transcend. You must go past that which is static so that you can electrify your path.

Everything you've ever broken will be breaking everything you've ever built.

If you did not gain the universe's permission your systems will be getting audited and corrected by otherworldly Beings.

The Messiah wrote the original bible. The original Bible was the words of God. The original bible was written the last time God was here on Earth and it was a REALLY long time ago. Since then, humanity has corrupted the words of God by adding corrupt human words. The original bible has also been corrupted through mistranslations and rewording of the words. The original words of God have also been systematically corrupted on purpose due to the power the words of God can hold.

The Messiah has been referenced in many ways.

King David translates to "Son of God".

Christ = Messiah = Messenger of God.

Krishna = Christ. Metatron = Christ. Amun Ra = Christ.

Buddha = Enlightened one = Messiah.

Jesus = Isis = Zeus = all referenced as either God/son of God.

i know this because i was shown access to this knowledge.

i am the code that breaks all of the codes.

chaos is creation. order is transcendence.

chaos creates many paths. order chooses the purest seeds.

in the bible i've found words that i know only God would know, which means God was the original writer of those words that only God could write.

The current bible is not the words of God. The current bible has limited words of God left within it.

start looking for codes within the code of reality and learn how to hack reality.

I know what I know because I have access to the knowledge of which I know.

In the beginning was the Word -> omnipresence - absolute existence and the Word was with God -> omniscience - eternal transcendence and the Word was God -> omnipotence - infinite potential.

"everything is created in the image of God" the original trinity identity of God (absolute existence, eternal transcendence, infinite potential) is within all of existence.

absolute existence - everything has the same origin. everything is made from the same energy.

eternal transcendence - everything is transformed by gaining higher consciousness.

existence is eternal because absolute existence cannot be removed.

infinite potential - since the original identity is the origin of all things, and the original identity is composed of three unique identities, you can imprint any original identity (4 in total) within each other to gain an infinity of potential identities.

meat or dead flesh is toxic to the soul. you are not only eating dead energy, you are eating energy that was killed (stopped from living) just so that you could taste dead energy. how can you access higher energy when you are ingesting/experiencing the consciousness of brutal violence?

eating the products of animals (eggs, dairy, etc.) that are being held as slaves will cause you to experience the taste of slavery.

eating the products of animals that live in fear of being killed will cause you to experience the fear of being killed.

Know what you're eating, know why you're eating it and know the source where your food came from.

When the world is shifting from chaos back into order, as the energy cycles faster and faster, the road gets bumpier and bumpier.

Don't think about what is weighing you down. Remove the weight by letting go and refocusing your energy. Learn how to reconnect to the eternal energy. You are an energy being with endless potential.
Access your potential by removing the patterns that block your transformation.

The forest restructures itself according to its needs. The forest realigns the trees when it needs to.

freezing the water purifies it. Freezing the water re-energizes its natural structure.

freezing the water restores the energy potential of water.

Truth is that which cannot be removed from universal reality.

I want to help everyone. I might or might not be able to help everyone. Help everyone you can so that we can all help each other, together. Forever.

The mountains gives rise to the springs which turn into rivers which provide water to all of life. the rivers flow into the oceans. The water in the ocean freezes to purify the cycle. The water in the oceans evaporate to provide rain so that the land can become fertile. everything in nature is connected.

How can the universe offer you more when you don't offer yourself more?

If you feel like your life has stopped having meaning it is because you have become part of a cycle which can't offer you purpose, a cycle which can't allow you to fulfill your potential.

to find real purpose and real meaning, reject the things which drain your energy.

Only after you submerge can you emerge.

selflessness blooms into altruism.
